1998 Hambletonian
Chester High School
Chester, New York

As we put this chapter of our lives to an end, we are opening a new one, a new life to begin.

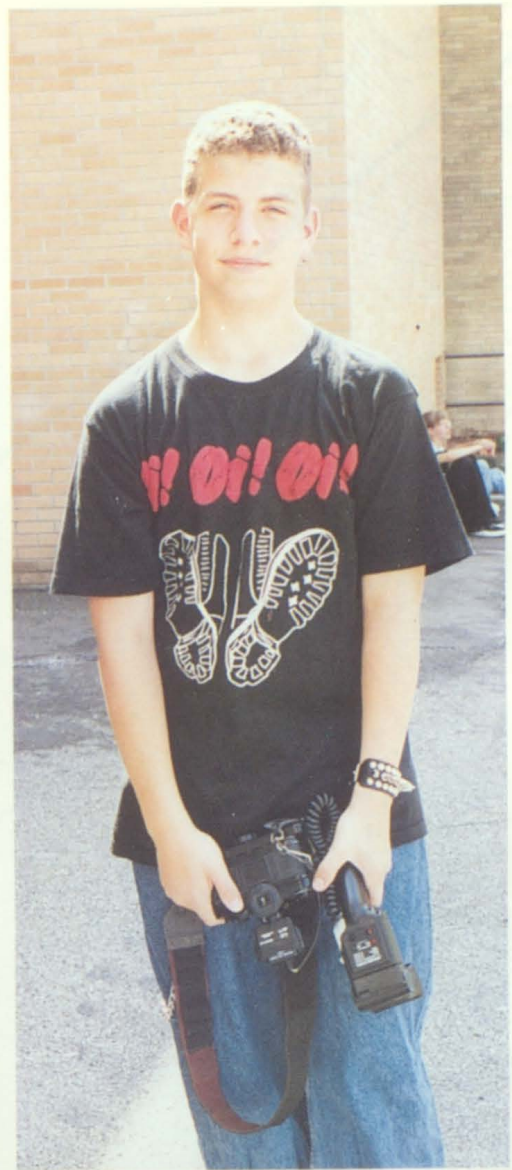

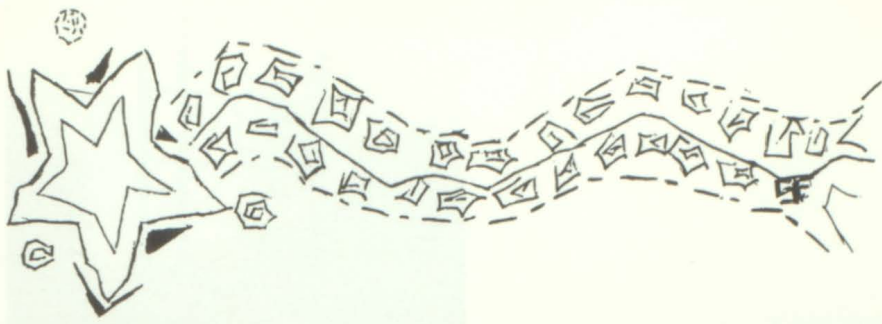

We must all move on, not forgetting the ones we are leaving behind, the ones who have helped us along our way.

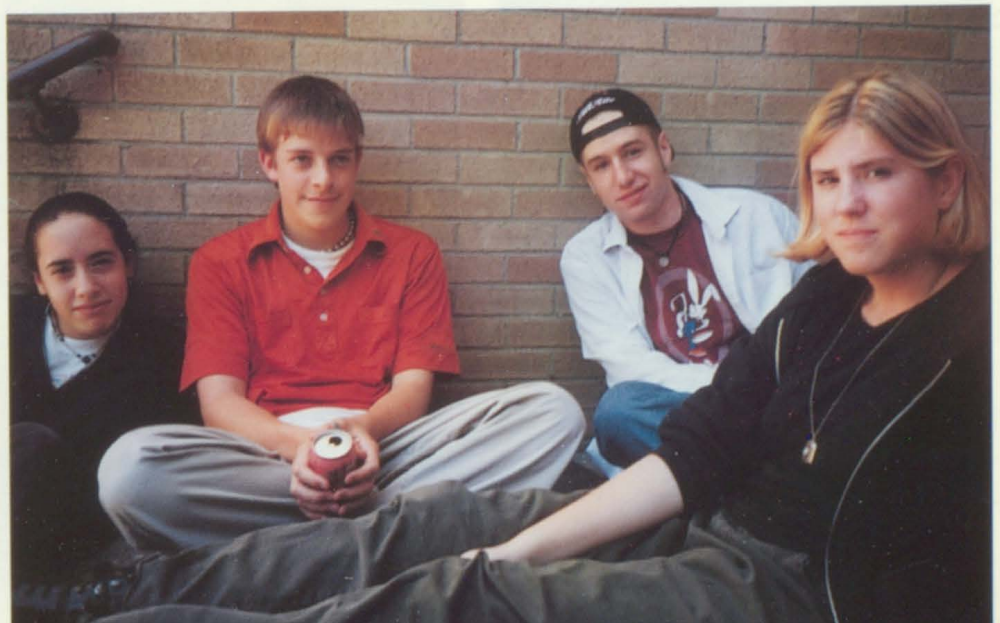

We have grown over the years, helping to create the many options for ourselves, for our future.

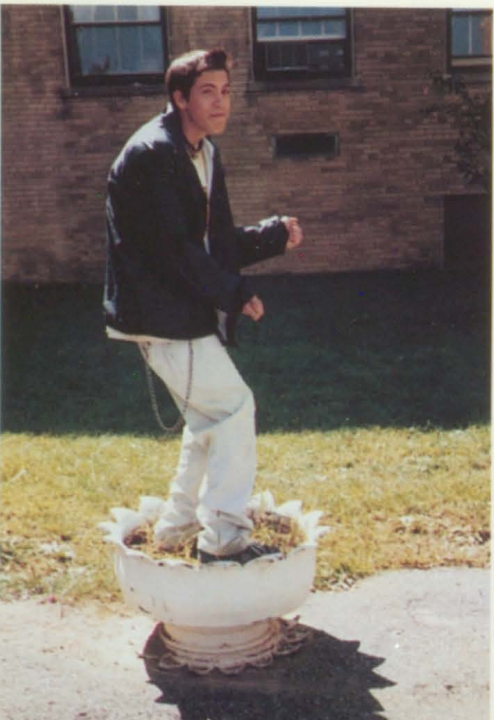

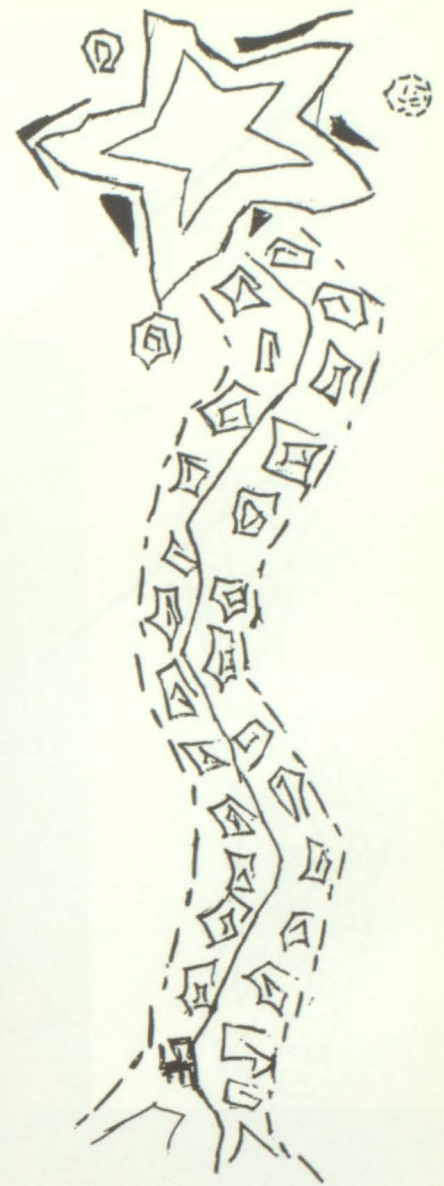

We will all move on, independently, as we create our own lives and our own opportunities.

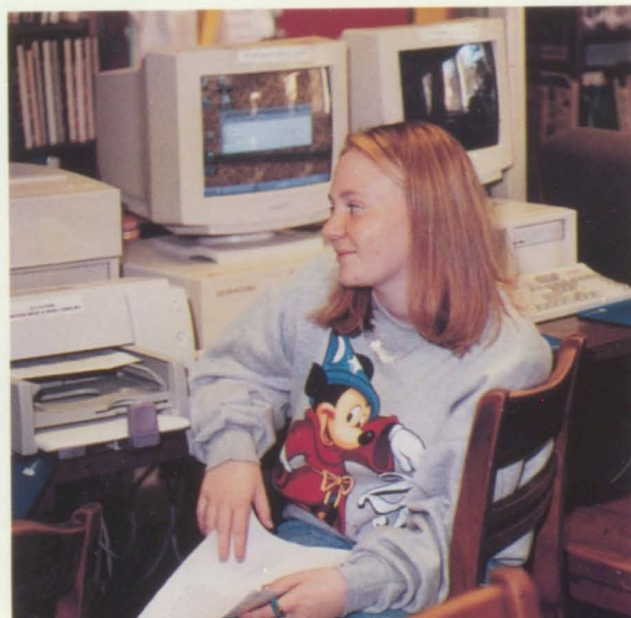

We all have a dream for the future.....

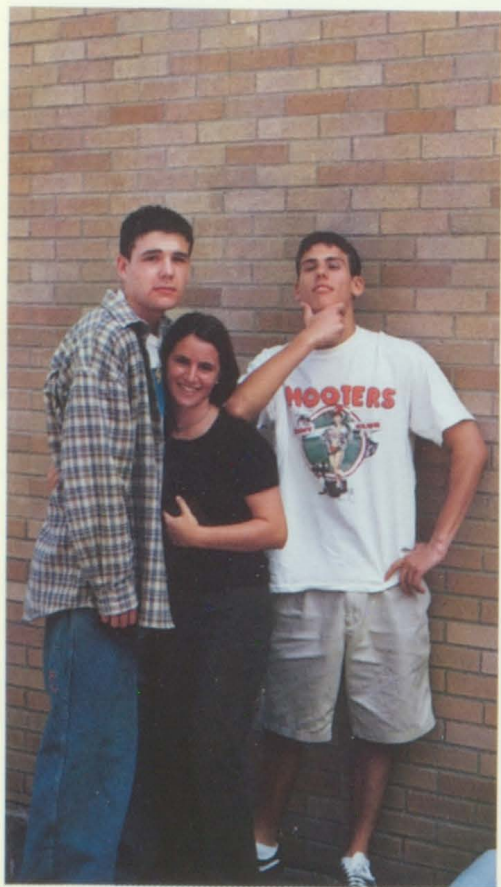

but we have to work hard upon those dreams to make them a success, to make them a reality.

The only regrets you have in life are risks you don't take.

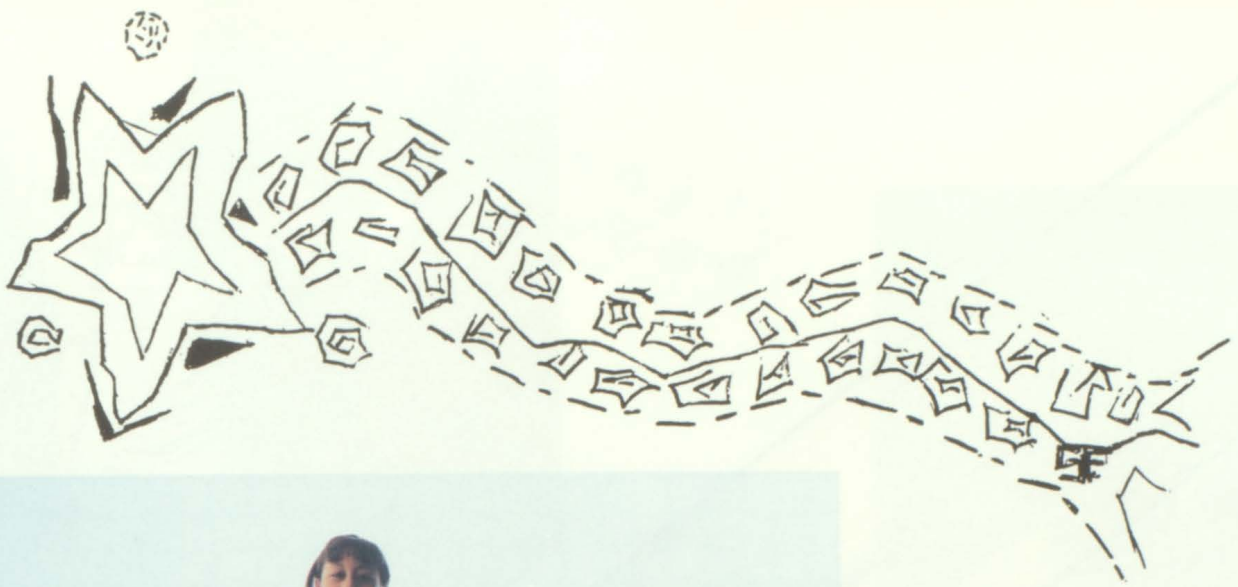

Our lives will soon be dominated by things beyond our control.....

We have taken many steps in life, steps we have learned from.

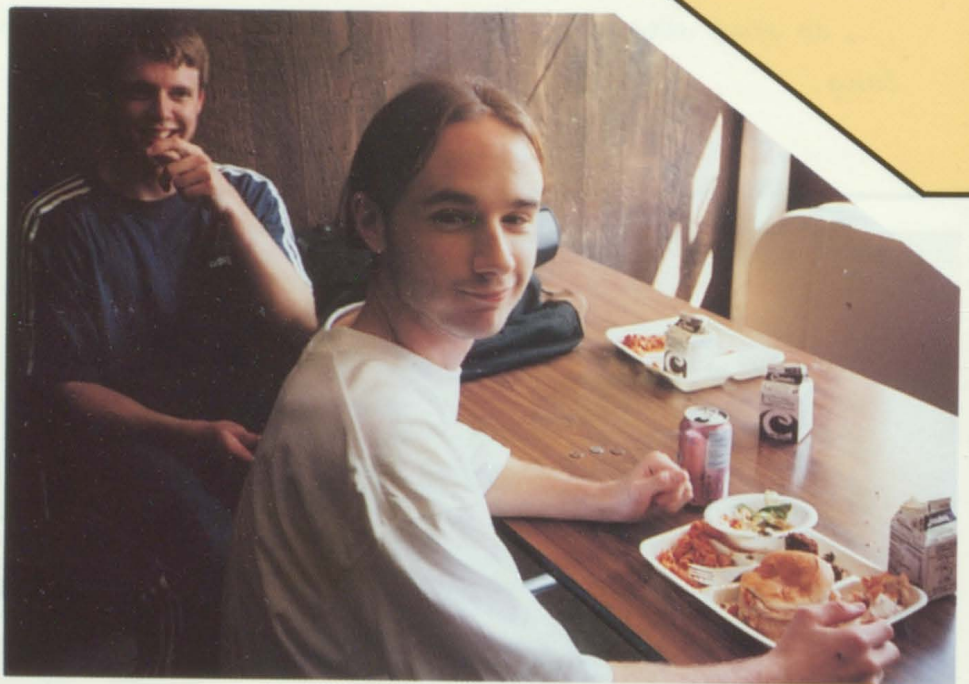

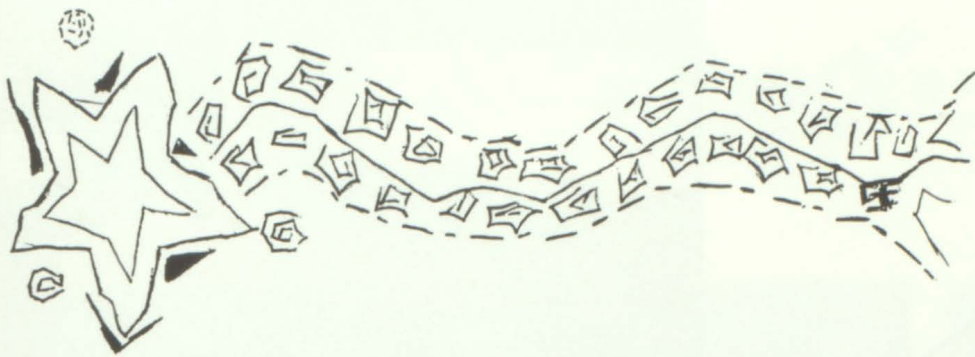

.... so stay strong and take the time to create memories to last your whole life long.

Some of us are trying to figure out who we are, while others already know.

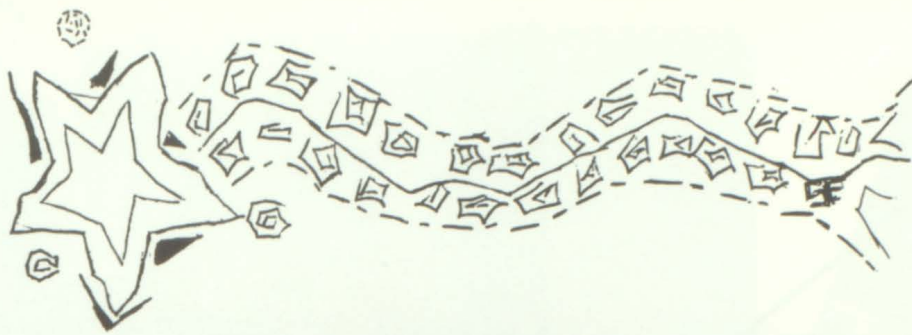

Never give up, and never give in, because this best of times are soon to begin.

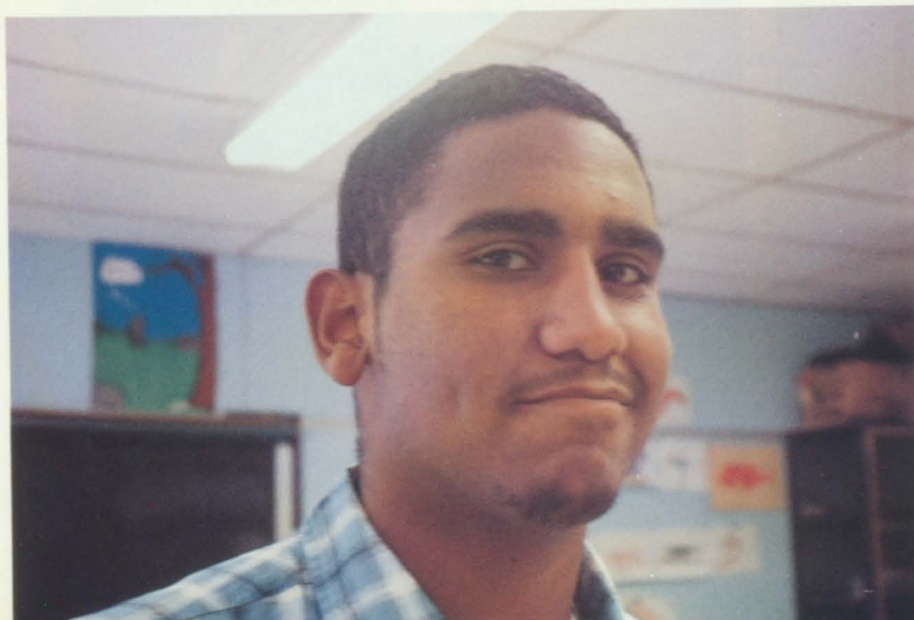

We must look into our future...

.... yet be proud of the accomplishments we have made.

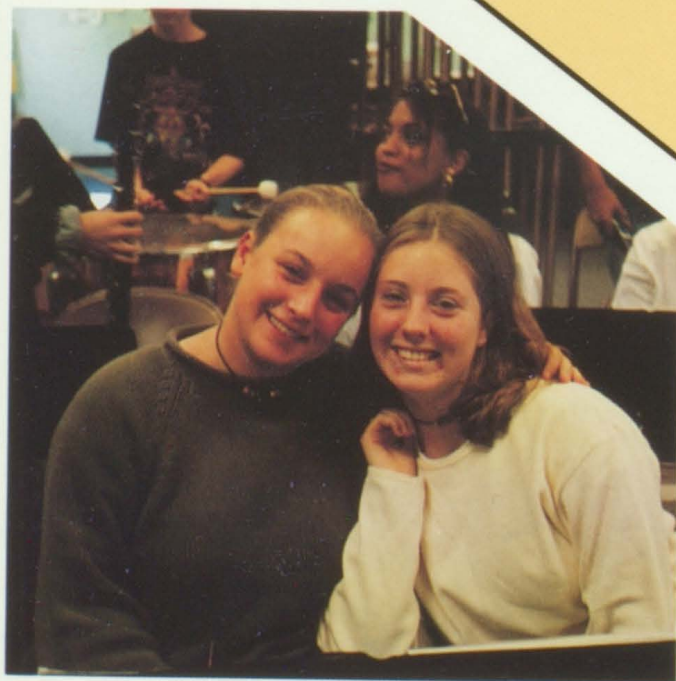

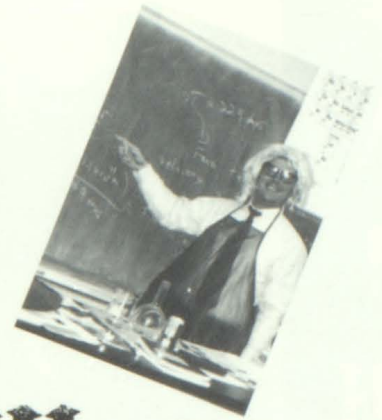

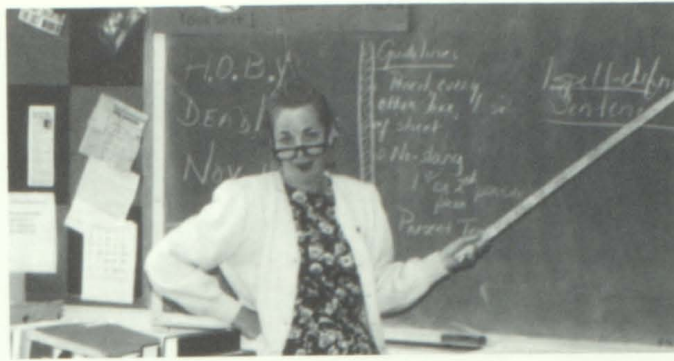

*In the beginning we all shared our days,
separate ways.*

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations to all of the graduates of the Class of 1998. As you leave Chester High School, take with you a strong belief in yourself. Your successful experiences here are ones to build on. As you enter college, the military or the workforce know that you are ultimately responsible for making your life what it will be. Set realistic goals and work hard in a positive manner to achieve them. If things don't work at first, keep trying and never, never give up.

I wish all the best in your future.

Sincerely,

Paul B. Reh

 I Hold This Moment In My Hand
 This Moment Of Flight
 My Eyes Welling With Tears
 My Heart So Heavy, Yet So Light
 You Walk Before Me
 Your Head Held High
 But My Soul Is So Unwilling To Say Goodbye
 You Go Before Me, So Grown, So At Peace
 Your Smile And Hopes Set Me At Ease
 You Throw Your Caps In The Air
 So Quickly Gone, You Were Barely There
 But You Left An Imprint On My Heart
 That Will Never Fade Away
 As I Say Goodbye To You
 On Your Graduation Day.

Life, So Easily Changed,
Without Us Knowing,
We Turn Our Heads,
And Look Back For Just A Moment
And We See Someone
So Unlike Who We See Now,
Our Lives Are Forever Changed,
From Those Who Have Influenced Us,
We Stop To Say Thank You,
And Then We Leave,
Onto Bigger And Better Things,
Now, We're Gone And Will Return,
A Changed Person,
From Whom They're Seen,
Life, So Easily Changed.

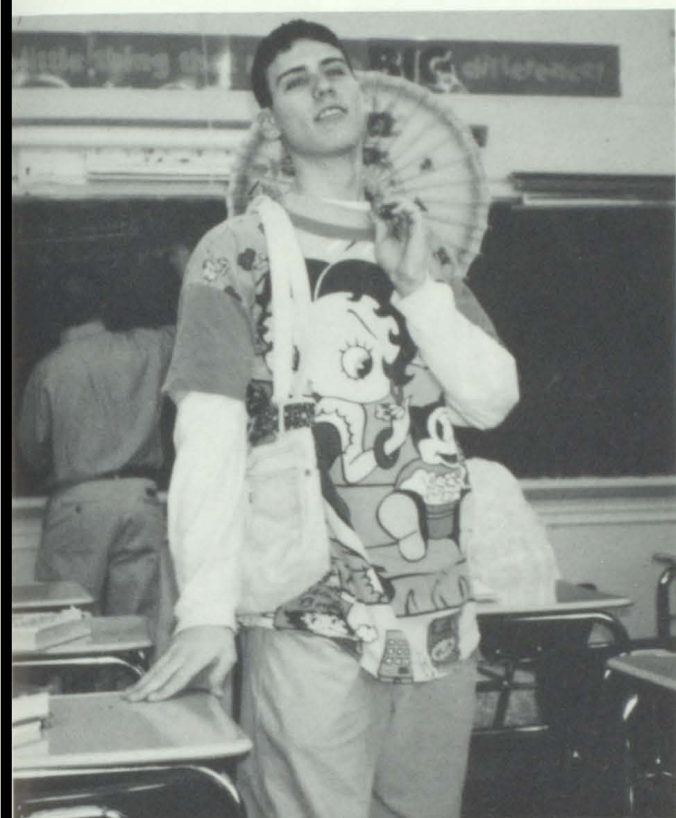

Senior

thieves

A day that every senior that participated will probably remember for the rest of their lives. A day that we could dress up like fools and not be made fun of for it. This year, we had to wait for this day because of snow closings!! It was originally scheduled for December 23rd, and because of the weather school was closed. So it was rescheduled on January 16th, the weekend before Martin Luther King Junior Day. And without fail it snowed again!! So it was rescheduled once again for the following Tuesday and once again it snowed and school was closed. So once again it was rescheduled for Monday the 26th of January. And... it did not snow. All the seniors were sure that we wouldn't have Senior Servant Day until the spring. We had Greg stuck in the 60's with bellbottoms that Sarah provided, Tracee dressed up like a clown in big noisy shoes provided by Vanessa, Kevin wearing a sign that said his little sister is better basketball player than he is, Mark dressed up like a girl scout, provided by his brother, Shaun in a big red wig with a black cape, provided by Mr. Klinger, John wearing a big blue dress, provided by Mrs. Wellington, and Robyn wearing a hideous wig in the morning and big red glasses in the afternoon! All in all, the day was fun, and it was for a good cause. All money raised went to the People For People fund. Thank you to all the people who were involved!

DEFINITELY A NIGHT

1997

TO REMEMBER!

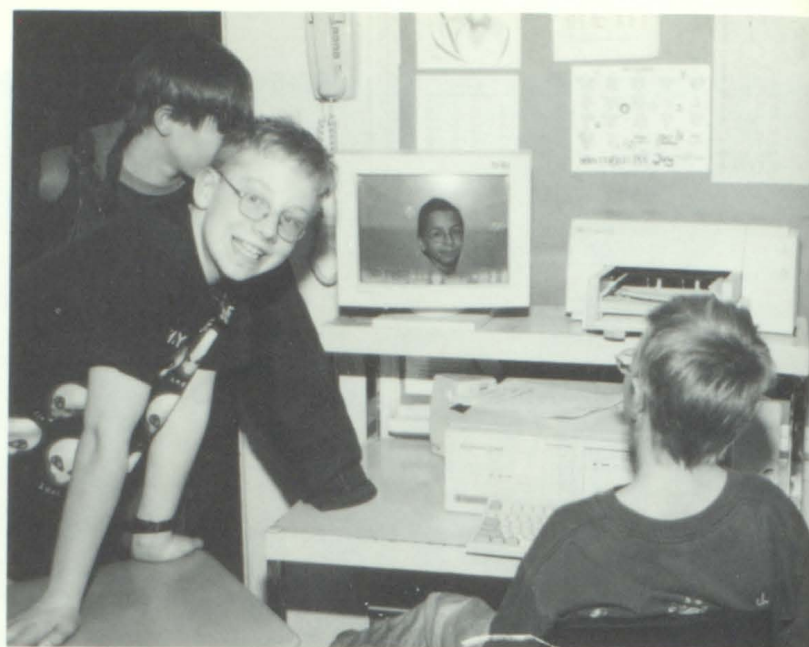

*People are unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered. Love them anyway.
If you do good, people accuse you of selfish uneven motives. Do good anyway.
If you are successful, you win false friends and true enemies. Succeed anyway.
The good you do today will be forgot tomorrow. Do good anyway.
Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable.
Be honest and frank anyway.
What you spend years building maybe destroyed overnight. Build it anyway.
People really need help but may attack you if you help them. Help them anyway.
Give the world the best you have
and you'll get kicked in the teeth.
Give the world the best you've got ANYWAY!!!*

Time

You may think its over,
But its not over yet.
Yet you wonder,
Where have the years gone?
As time goes by,
The day we have been
Waiting and looking forward to
Gets closer and closer.
So cherish every moment
Of everyday
Because it goes by faster,
Than you could ever imagine!

Vito,

As a youngster, you were certainly "an active little boy." Trying to keep up with you, really kept us adults "on our toes." The words Hyperactive and Vito were synonymous.

As an adolescent, you tested us with your "strong will & determination"- to do things "your way".

As a teenager & young man you developed a great sense of humor & a wonderful personality. Always "happy-go-lucky" & smiling. And that same "strong will" & determination, has kept you on the right road & path- never a follower. Always "paving your own road".

Vito, you have grown into a fine young man. We are so proud of you. Continue to pave your own roads in life. Especially, keep smiling. And always, always, "GO FOR THE GOAL"!! (in whatever you do).

Congratulations & God Bless You.
